

GCA Sports Parent's Code of Conduct

I recognize that by allowing my child to play on a Geneva Classical Academy (GCA) Team, I will be actively involved in the following ways:

- I will require my child to abide by GCA's Athlete Code of Conduct.
- I will demonstrate self-control during all practices and games. I will not yell at game officials, my child, GCA players or coaches; or the opposing players, coaches or parents.
- I recognize that GCA is a competitive program and that playing time is at the sole discretion of the coach.
- I will not approach a coach before, during, or after a game to discuss my child's play time but will request a meeting at another time. If my child has been designated "developmental" my child and I understand that there is no guarantee that my child will play during games but that he/she will participate this season to develop skills and friendships.
- I will set up a time to talk/meet with the coach/athletic director at least 24 hours after the practice or game.
- I will keep a positive attitude in the stands and not undermine the coach's decisions (no gossip).

Athletes Code of Conduct

By joining a GCA sports team, I agree to uphold the following rules:

- I will demonstrate the character quality of attentiveness by listening to the instructions of my coaches.
- I will demonstrate the character quality of faithfulness by attending all practices and games.
- I will arrive at practices and games on time.
- I will contact the coach if I will be late or miss a practice or game
- I will maintain a positive, teachable attitude, no matter what happens during practices/games.
- I will not be on my phone during team meetings, practices, or games.
- I will stay with my team during away games.
- I will return my uniform washed and in the same condition I received it.
- I will demonstrate the character quality of discipline by following the rules established by my team.
- I will demonstrate the character quality of orderliness by following the dress code:
  - No jewelry will be worn during practices or games.
  - Dress appropriately for all practices and games. Coaches and/or athletic director shall determine practice and game attire.
