GENEVA DRESS CODE PHILOSOPHY

We desire that Geneva's education would be wholly invested in developing mature young men and women who express the Truth, Goodness and Beauty of God in every aspect of their lives. With regard to attire, we expect students to affirm the following.

TRUTH: GOD MADE TWO DIFFERENT SEXES SO OUR DRESS SHOULD REFLECT THE ORDERLINESS OF HIS DESIGN IN THIS.

GOODNESS: OUR BODIES ARE HIS TEMPLE SO WE SHOULD SEEK TO PRESERVE MODESTY AND PRESENT A WELL-MANNERED AND TIDY APPEARANCE.

BEAUTY: HE, IN HIS WISDOM, HAS BLESSED US WITH A SENSE OF AESTHETICS WHICH WE OUGHT TO CHERISH BY SEEKING HARMONY IN OUR SENSE OF PERSONAL STYLE, NO MATTER HOW VARIED OUR SUBJECTIVE PREFERENCES ARE.

GENEVA DRESS CODE

Hair styles for all boys and girls

In the spirit of cultivating a business-like appearance and without being legalistic, we require hair to be neatly groomed, avoiding styles and cuts that are distractions. Hair should be natural colors, and no images, words, symbols, or logos shaved into the hair.

Grammar school boys—hair must be trimmed above the collar and brushed or combed out of the face. Upper school boys—hair must be trimmed above the collar and out of the face or pulled back in a well-groomed ponytail. Topknots or “man-buns” are not permitted. Young men should be clean shaven or have well-groomed facial hair.

Male Rhetoric Students (9th–12th)

Shirts

Neat button up, long sleeve dress shirts: white, blue, earth tones, or pastel colors only. Checked or striped of only two colors.

Pants

Dress pants or slacks; no patch pocket pants. Belt should be leather and match shoes.

Shoes

Brown or black leather loafers, Oxford, Derby, wingtip, or dressy Chukka (with approval of Head of Upper School).

Female Rhetoric Students (9th–12th)

Dresses

Dresses or skirts with hemlines around the knee (no more than two inches above knee) and non-revealing necklines. Underclothing should not be visible.

Shirts

Tops should be neat and modest (no spaghetti straps, midriff, or low cut tops). Tee-shirt style tops may be worn with dressy blazers or cardigans.

Pants

Dress slacks with no patch pockets are permitted. Leggings, harem pants, and capris are not permitted.
